

Position Announcement

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Overview.

The Allen Fairview Texas Chamber of Commerce has launched a search for the Chief Executive Officer position. The Chason Group has been retained to assist the Chamber with the executive search.

The Chamber works closely with community leaders to advocate, educate, and connect members for the growth and development of the Allen Fairview business community. With a budget of $600,000 and a staff of three full-time professionals, the chamber serves as a voice for the business community. The vision of the Allen Fairview Chamber of Commerce is to be the indispensable resource for Allen, Fairview, and Collin County businesses.

The Allen Fairview Chamber Board is seeking a visionary leader who inspires, collaborates, and understands the needs of a rapidly growing business community. An extremely competitive compensation package is offered for this position, including health insurance, life insurance, retirement, incentive plan and more.

About Allen Fairview Area.

The Allen Fairview Texas area is a rapidly growing community in Collin County, Texas. Located just north of Dallas, it is considered to be a part of the Dallas-Fort Worth-Arlington Metropolitan area. Collin County is one of the fastest growing counties in the state of Texas. Texas has been recognized as the third fastest growing state in the nation. Allen and Fairview, once a small bedroom community, now has over 125,000 residents. The median age of the area is 48 to 49 and it is ranked as one of the best places to raise a family.

Allen and Fairview both offer highly ranked education options for local families. Specifically, Allen Independent School District, as well as the Lovejoy and McKinney Independent School districts, which appeal to many new families. There is also Collin College which is recognized for their state-of-the-art technology and student outcomes.

For outdoor entertainment, the area is known for Lavon Lake, a 21,400-acre lake that offers beaches, fishing, boating, and camping to residents and visitors. Allen and Fairview also offer over 60 community parks, miles of hiking and biking trails and the recently opened Stephen G. Terrell Recreation Center that offers year-round entertainment options to the community.

The Allen and Fairview communities offer access to a wide range of museums and historical landmarks, theatres, and cultural centers, as well as unique shopping and eatery options. Allen and Fairview Texas are also less than an hour from Dallas, Texas where residents can watch the Dallas Cowboys, visit world class museums, catch a performance at one of the many venues and so much more.

The Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport is less than an hour from the Allen and Fairview area, as well as UT Southwestern Medical Center which was recognized as the number one hospital in Texas and one of the top 20 in the nation.

About the Allen Fairview Chamber.

The Allen Fairview Chamber of Commerce is poised to grow rapidly with more people and businesses moving to the area. With community partners such as the Allen EDC, the Fairview EDC, and Visit Allen, the potential is immeasurable.

The Chamber is the voice of business in Allen and Fairview and works to make connections for their members to ensure growth and success. Currently the Chamber has over 600 members and as business continues to expand it could realistically double in size over the next five years. The area has seen over 500 acres of mixed-use development come online in the last several years. There is also the SH 121 Corridor offering 900 acres of mixed-use development; the Allen Gateway which offers 75 acres of mixed-use space and over one million square feet of office and retail space; and the Fairview Commercial Planned Development District just to name a few major expansions for the area.

Advocating business issues at the local, state, and federal levels is of utmost importance for the Chamber. As the communities grow, everyone remaining on the same page will be key for success. Bringing existing and new businesses together for successful relationships is an important role for the chamber. As the exponential growth of the community continues, so will Chamber membership and programs offered. The Board is focused on strong communication strategies, collaboration, and positive outcomes for all business and community members.
